

Nairn

Introducing Nairn: Classic with a Modern Twist Experience the perfect balance of traditional styling and modern flair with the Nairn sofa from Tetrad Harris Tweed. With its higher back and shallower seat depth, this sofa nods to traditional design while incorporating contemporary elements. The slim, shapely arms maximize seating space while maintaining a compact footprint, and the hand-applied studs add stylish detailing. It's a versatile piece that seamlessly blends into any interior. Comfort and Lasting Support The Nairn sofa features a fully coil-sprung seat, providing the ultimate comfort and support that lasts. Sink into its plush cushions and enjoy the perfect combination of relaxation and durability. The beautiful, elegant curves of the Nairn chair create a softer take on the classic wingback design while still offering a traditional feel. The fixed seat and back ensure that this chair retains its showroom looks for longer.
