

Regent

Introducing Regent: Modern Regency Style Experience the modern take on regency style with the Regent sofas and chair from Tetrad Harris Tweed. The sofa features a deeply buttoned frame, elegant scroll arms, and turned wooden legs, while the chair boasts a deeply buttoned high back, scroll arms, and turned wooden legs. These pieces offer a fusion of classic and contemporary design, making them suitable for both traditional interiors and more modern homes. Comfort and Elegance Combined The Regent collection offers excellent comfort and support with fully sprung seats and backs. Sink into the plush cushions and enjoy the deep button detailing that adds elegance and individuality. The fusion of classic and contemporary elements ensures that these pieces make a statement in any setting.
